A Message from the President

In 2012, our board of directors hatched a bold new plan: to expand our traditional publishing mission into the digital realm, raising awareness of Emanuel Swedenborg's thought through online media as well as ink and paper.

Two years into the endeavor, we've seen fantastic success. In 2014, people watched our videos online one million times. Every week, more than a hundred thousand people see one of our posts on Facebook. As interest builds, more and more people come to our website, where they can find out more information about Swedenborg and read his writings at no charge. Those who aren't ready to dive directly into Swedenborg's writings will find a wealth of books to introduce them to his ideas and provide tips for applying them to daily life. We're building a vertically integrated network of information that leads people to a deep understanding of Swedenborgian spirituality.

This seismic shift in the way we do business has been possible because of the full buy-in and implementation by the Foundation staff to the board's vision. We acknowledge in particular Morgan Beard, our operations manager, for her ability to meld the staff into a cohesive unit, for the stability she has brought to the office, and for her dynamic leadership. It has been an exciting two years, and next year promises to be even more so! We also salute our dedicated members and donors who have supported our new directions and made it a reality. Thank you!

Touching Lives

Online

Our online activities expanded on every front this year. A new weekly program on YouTube is attracting a growing audience. Our Facebook following is in the hundreds of thousands. Every day, thousands of people are hearing about Swedenborg for the first time, and the response has been fantastic.

In 2014, visitors spent 2.6 million minutes watching our Off the Left Eye channel on YouTube, which features a wide variety of videos about Swedenborg. The shortest ones, called the “Swedenborg Minute,” apply Swedenborg’s ideas to current events or some aspect of daily life. The longest videos are part of the weekly series Swedenborg and Life, launched in June. This hour-long show—which airs live on Monday nights at 8 p.m. and then remains online for viewers to see later—features more in-depth discussion of Swedenborg’s thought with expert guests.

All together, these videos had nearly one million views in 2014. The most popular videos on the channel were its more highly produced pieces, such as “You Are the Lungs,” which illustrates how all of humanity joins to form the Universal Human, and “The Universal Categories of Love,” which describes the difference between love of self, love of the world, and love of the Lord. These are older videos (produced in 2013), but when we promote them through paid advertising, we continue to find and grow our audience.

Toward the end of the year we had a drastic increase in minutes watched, which climbed from around 100,000 minutes per month in the first half of the year to more than 400,000 minutes per month in November and December. Swedenborg and Life was responsible for that increase. Not only is it longer than the earlier videos, but it was (and is still) gaining in popularity as more and more people recommend, discover, and watch it.

YouTube doesn’t allow us to track repeat viewers, so it’s difficult to know how many people are represented by the statistics on views and minutes watched. However, the number of people who subscribe to the channel more than doubled in 2014, totaling 9,373 by the end of the year and passing 10,000 in early 2015.

Heaven and Hell on Facebook

The Heaven and Hell Facebook page provides daily inspiration in the form of quotes from Swedenborg’s writings (set inside eye-catching photos to encourage sharing) and from thinkers whose words are in harmony with Swedenborg’s thought. Moderators on the page respond to questions and encourage

I cannot get enough of these videos! I've started sharing them online and incorporating them into my Christian education with youth and in worship. They've also led me to explore Emanuel Swedenborg, which is blowing my mind. This is really a blessing. The world needs this teaching.

Thank you for taking the time to help interpret and explain Swedenborg's teachings. They have helped me tremendously to reconcile the passing of my beloved son into heaven. . . . You are truly doing the work of God.

comments from the people who see the posts.

In an average week, about 100,000 people see one of our Facebook posts—generating several hundred comments—and more than a thousand people share what they've seen with their friends. To put that in perspective, it's as if we filled a football stadium full of people every week and put one of Swedenborg's quotes on the Jumbotron.

In order to achieve that kind of reach, we're using paid promotion, enabling us to find a constant stream of potential new viewers. The same is true of the Off the Left Eye YouTube channel. We're able to continue this work—as well as buy new equipment and hire additional personnel for both outlets—thanks to generous support from our donors. We are truly blessed for all the help we've received. ☺

“The whole of heaven rests
on love as its foundation.”

The Heaven and Hell Facebook page features quotes from Swedenborg set on beautiful images to encourage sharing.

Spreading the Word

An important part of our mission is to provide information about Swedenborg to seekers everywhere. Our website, Swedenborg.com, is an evolving platform where the curious can find out more about the man and his thought—and read his writings for free. But, as you’ll see below, we haven’t lost touch with our original mission of distributing printed books.

Free Books Online

In 2014, our site received more than 80,000 visitors, and they downloaded nearly 24,000 copies of our books. We offer all of Swedenborg’s theological writings online for no charge, both in the older Standard Edition and (as new volumes are released) the New Century Edition.

Many of our site visitors are looking for information about the afterlife—in fact, one of the most popular pages on our site describes Swedenborg’s view of the spiritual world—and so it’s probably no surprise that the most popular free book on our site is Heaven and Hell. The second most popular title is Our Life after Death, which is an abridged version, released in 2014, of the “World of Spirits” section of Heaven and Hell.

Using our website analytics, we can tell that almost half (43%) of the free e-books on our site were downloaded by people who found us by using a search engine like Google. There’s no way for us to know what prompts people to search, but it’s likely that many of these visitors were inspired by our OTLE YouTube and Heaven and Hell Facebook pages. There are also a number of informational sites (Wikipedia, for example) that link to ours for information about Swedenborg. The people who find us this way often download books, and it’s common for them to come back later for more reading material. By making these books available online, we’re ensuring that there’s always a way for people to access Swedenborg’s ideas and reliable information about his life—all day, every day.

One of the ways that we integrate all of our different programs is by providing cross-links between the Off the Left Eye YouTube channel, the Heaven and Hell Facebook page, and the free downloads on our site. For example, last summer Swedenborg and Life host Curtis Childs ran a weekly YouTube discussion of Our Life after Death that resulted in more than 1,800 downloads of the free e-book from the Foundation’s website.

We also use marketing to draw people to our site. One strategy we’ve developed is to advertise some aspect of Swedenborg’s thought—for example, the afterlife, angels, or regeneration—and link the ad to a page of resources that people can use to learn more about that concept. The page might include videos, free e-book downloads, excerpts from Swedenborg’s writings, or other tools. These pages have become some of the most popular sections of our site.

Book Donations

We hear many stories from people who first heard of Swedenborg through a chance encounter with one of his books. The Swedenborg Foundation was established to distribute Swedenborg’s writings as widely as possible, and we keep the tradition alive today by donating books to organizations for free distribution.

Here are just a few examples of our book giveaways this year:

- ☞ We donated more than fourteen thousand copies of overstock NCE volumes, mostly Heaven and Hell, to the General Church. These volumes are being distributed for free to visitors at the Bryn Athyn Cathedral and to other groups around the country.
- ☞ We gave approximately a hundred books to the Good Cause Café, a local charity that offers support to terminally ill patients and their families.
- ☞ At the American Academy of Religion conference, a meeting of religion scholars from all over the world, we gave nearly fifty copies of our books to theological students.
- ☞ When New York Times bestselling author Dr. Eben Alexander came to Bryn Athyn to speak about his near-death experience and the book he wrote about it, we gave away two hundred copies of Our Life after Death, an excerpt from the “World of Spirits” section of Heaven and Hell.

We continue to give books to groups or individuals in need as requests come in, and we encourage anyone who would like books for this purpose to contact us for more information. ☞

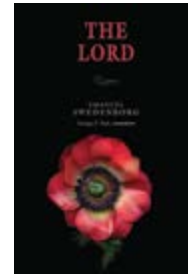

“[One of our visitors] has lost several close relatives over the last few years and has found deep comfort reading Heaven and Hell. He said he was ready for a new book . . . There was one on the table waiting for him.”

New Century Edition

The New Century Edition (NCE) team made excellent editorial progress in 2014. A brief list of highlights—leaving a great deal out—would run as follows.

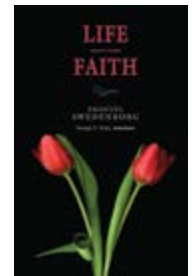

- ✦ The draft translations for the series are complete except for the last two of the fifteen Secrets of Heaven volumes. Lisa Hyatt Cooper has begun translating the first of these (volume 14).
- ✦ Jonathan S. Rose edited and coordinated the Bible passages in The Shorter Works of 1758 (“the 1758s”) and The Shorter Works of 1763 (“the 1763s”) using a team-built database that allowed for comparing all instances of a passage simultaneously.
- ✦ Stuart Shotwell edited the 1758s and worked on annotations for that volume.
- ✦ Annotation editor Lee Woofenden completed his major pass through the 1758s notes and brought the annotation of the two volumes of Revelation Unveiled close to completion.
- ✦ George F. Dole made his final translator edits on the 1758s translations as they approached publication.
- ✦ Project Manager Alicia L. Dole copyedited, typeset, and oversaw both print and e-book production of all the new items issued, as well as further items in the pipeline.
- ✦ Chara Cooper Daum completed her Latin consultation on Secrets of Heaven vol. 12.

- ✦ Various researchers, including our Oxford University “stringers” David Gyllenhaal and Robin Wright, contributed annotations throughout the year.
- ✦ Part-time assistant editors Skye Kerr and Sarah Dole also did yeoman service with their meticulous checking.

New Publications

In addition to preparing future titles for publication, we released the first two in a series of six volumes of Swedenborg’s short works: The Lord (in November) and Life / Faith (in December). A third volume, Sacred Scripture / White Horse, was readied for release in early 2015, and extensive preparation was made to publish the remaining three volumes in the shorter works series—New Jerusalem, Last Judgment / Supplements, and Other Planets.

The Foundation issued two volumes as spinoffs that contain extracts of NCE translations: Our Life after Death, which was taken from the “World of Spirits” section of Heaven and Hell, and Regeneration: Spiritual Growth and How it Works, which included material from New Jerusalem, True Christianity, Divine Love and Wisdom, and Secrets of Heaven.

E-Books and Audio

The first e-book version of a Deluxe (annotated) title was completed in April: at that time the Heaven and Hell Deluxe e-book became available for Kindle and EPUB readers. The e-book is fully linked; that is, every cross-reference to a section number, note number, page number, or heading is a clickable link that takes the reader directly to the material referred to, greatly increasing the accessibility of the introductions, notes, and indexes. In November, the Deluxe edition of True Christianity vol. 1 was also completed and released. We are very excited about these, as we think this technology will bring an ease to reading and studying Swedenborg’s works of which the author himself would have approved. They are also the first annotated works of Swedenborg to be preserved in a digital format (XML) that can be readily adapted to future platforms.

E-book editions of all of our Portable (unannotated) volumes are also being released. Though it takes longer to produce e-book files than it does to print the books, and thus there is generally a lag between publication of the book and the e-book, the electronic editions of The Lord, Life / Faith, and Sacred Scripture / White Horse are now available.

Our valued colleague Gordon Meyer continues to volunteer his labor to record the NCE series. The first of these audio editions, Heaven and Hell, took over the number-one spot in our audio offerings almost immediately upon release. The audio version of True Christianity vol. 1 was close to completion at the beginning of 2015.

Sales

In mid-2013, we introduced drastic price reductions on NCE print and electronic volumes with the goal of encouraging people to buy them in greater quantities. At the same time, we reintroduced free downloads of NCE volumes on our website, allowing visitors better access to the new translations. By the end of 2013, with a partial year of reduced prices and free downloads under our belt, we were seeing a lot of positive results.

In 2014, while the income from NCE sales remained flat as expected from the price reduction, the numbers not only increased but the growth accelerated. In print, we sold a total of 1,760 NCE volumes, a 20 percent increase from 2013.

NCE e-books experienced dramatic growth in 2014, jumping 94 percent to 2,465 units. Once again, because of the lowered price, sales dollars remained about the same as in 2013.

Fundraising

The NCE Completion Campaign was yet again blessed with a record number of individual donors in 2014. Twenty-five of the 132 donors were first-time givers. As a result of their generosity, we came within $800,157 of our $2.5 million goal at the end of 2014. We look forward to closing this gap, with gratitude to all who are making it possible for us to carry out this project. 🙏

New Books

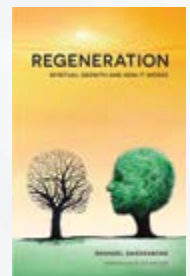

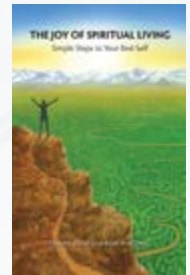

We released two new books last year, both on the topic of regeneration.

The Joy of Spiritual Living: Simple Steps to Your Best Self, by authors Frank Rose and Bob Maginel, encompasses a series of exercises based on Swedenborg's writings that are designed to bring spiritual awareness into everyday life. Rose and Maginel are co-organizers of a spiritual growth group in Arizona, and the exercises have been shaped over decades of experience. The questions and tasks are structured around weekly discussion, and the book includes supporting materials for people who want to use it in a group setting. However, it could also be easily used by individuals.

The book is a sequel to The Joy of Spiritual Growth (1999), also published by the Swedenborg Foundation. To make both of these titles more accessible for reading groups, we're offering a discount for people who buy five copies or more of either one.

Also new in 2014 was Regeneration: Spiritual Growth and How It Works, a compilation of Swedenborg's writings about spiritual growth. The excerpts follow Swedenborg's own pattern in describing regeneration, beginning with key concepts (New Jerusalem), a summary of what regeneration is (True Christianity), a discussion of spiritual levels and how they relate to regeneration (Divine Love and Wisdom) and, of course, Swedenborg's discussion of the six days of creation in Genesis 1 (Secrets of Heaven).

The Joy of Spiritual Living was our best-selling book for the year, followed by the portable edition of Heaven and Hell, Tiffany's Swedenborgian Angels, Our Life after Death, and Afterlife. ☺

Finances

After a remarkably good financial year in 2013, we had a slight contraction in both income and expenses in 2014. However, such fluctuations are normal, and overall the Foundation remains in good financial health.

Income

The majority of the Foundation's operating budget is derived from our endowment. Every year we use a small percentage of our overall endowment (our policy is not to exceed 4.5 percent) to support our operation in addition to income derived from donations, membership, and book sales.

We were blessed this year to have great support from our membership and donors for all of our new programs, for a total of close to $250,000. As discussed elsewhere, our book sales increased significantly in unit terms, mostly because of the availability of low-priced e-books, which have been very popular. However, because of those lower prices, our income from sales decreased slightly to $52,000.

The funds that are not used to cover operating costs are invested in a mix of stocks and real estate. At the beginning of 2014, our stock portfolio was being managed by J. P. Morgan. However, following a sharp increase in fees, the board reviewed proposals from other investment companies, and as a result, we transferred management of our stocks to Vanguard at the end of 2014. Both our stocks and our real estate investments had a slight loss in market value last year; at the end of the year, the total value of our investments were $17.4 million. We ended the year with approximately $178,000 in cash and cash equivalents, as well as property and equipment valued at approximately $477,000, for total net assets of $18.1 million.

Programs and Expenses

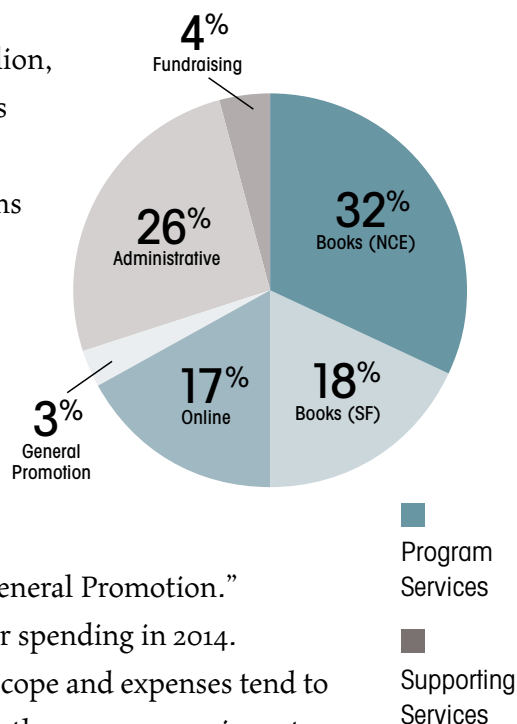

Our total expenses for 2014 were approximately $1.7 million, an 11 percent decrease from 2013. Most of the spending cuts happened on the program side of the budget, as the board committed extra funds to the launch of our online programs in 2013 and then began to adjust program spending back to a more sustainable level in 2014.

We currently have three major programs—the New Century Edition translations of Swedenborg’s works, production of books related to Swedenborg’s thought, and our online programming. Other miscellaneous activities that promote Swedenborg’s thought are listed in our schedule of functional expenses under the heading “General Promotion.” Collectively, these activities accounted for 70 percent of our spending in 2014.

The New Century Edition is an ongoing project whose scope and expenses tend to be steady from year to year. It should be noted that in 2014, there were some inventory adjustments that added to the cost of both the New Century Edition program and our general publication program (although those costs were incurred in previous years, and thus do not reflect cash spent in 2014). If those costs are factored out, online programming would be our second-largest program in 2014. We anticipate that trend to become even more pronounced over the next couple of years as we continue to transition away from a traditional publishing model.

Please see the following page for a more complete statement of our expenses for the year. You can also obtain our auditor’s full report by contacting our business manager, Valerie McLaughlin, by phone at (610) 430-3222, ext. 18; by e-mail at vmclaughlin@swedenborg.com, or by writing to 320 North Church Street, West Chester, PA 19380.

About

The Foundation

Founded in New York City in 1849 as the American Swedenborg Printing and Publishing Society, we have been dedicated from the start to making Emanuel Swedenborg's thought as widely available as possible. Originally, that meant distributing his books for the lowest cost possible, but in 1928 (the same year our name changed to the Swedenborg Foundation), our mission expanded to include publishing books about his ideas. Since our founding we have sold or given away millions of books, pamphlets, and other informational materials. As we entered the digital age, we have embraced new forms of communication, but our goals remain the same: to reach out, to inspire, and to inform.

OUR MISSION

The mission of the Swedenborg Foundation is to foster an affirmative, informed, and increasingly broad engagement with the spiritual experiences and theological message disclosed by Emanuel Swedenborg.
